

The Perfect Patch

I have a patterned patch
That covers my left eye,
It doesn't really bother me and let me tell you why...

I have a lazy eye
That needs some help to see,
It doesn't hurt to wear them and I get lots of them for free.

I get to choose a pattern,
A new one every day,
They look very cool on me
And all my friends agree.

On Mondays I'm a pirate
Sailing on the seas,
On Tuesdays I'm a panda
Eating all the leaves.

On Wednesdays I wear camouflage
And hide among the plants,
Thursday is a stripy day
Just like my favourite pants.

Cars are on my Friday patch
I can drive so fast,
My patch has special powers
And I know I won't come last!

On Saturdays and Sundays
I wear my football patch,
One day when I am older
I will go to see a match.

Some people like to stare at you
There are some who point and yell,
But I just tell them I am me
And that I wear them well.

P is for proud – be proud of your patch
A is for awesome – not everyone gets to wear one
T is for tickly – when you take a patch off your eye
C is for colourful – all the different styles
H is for happy – you're helping your eyes.
